PRIZE DISTRIBUTION AT THE FRENCH CONVENT.

A Year of Progress.

There was a large attendance at the prize distribution in connection with the French Convent school on Wednesday evening, over which His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard presided. His Excellency was accompanied by Captain P. M. Taylor,

A.D.C., and amongst those present were Bishop D. Pozzoni, Father P. de Maria,

Father Watson, Brother Christian, Mr

J. R. Wood, Director of Education; Mr

R. C. Barlow, Superintendent of Schools.

His Excellency said—My Lord, Bishop, ladies and gentlemen—it is now some little time since I am sorry to say, I was last at the convent, but it gives me very great pleasure to be present on this occasion, more especially as the report of the manager of the school, which I have read and which I hope everyone present has also read, is so eminently satisfactory this year. In every department there has been excellent progress, on what I think are very sound lines. The attendance has increased and I am pleased to note that the staff of teachers is adequate and more than proportionate to the number of pupils. The proportion of upper and lower to the lower school is under the circumstances of the convent, eminently satisfactory. The general conduct and discipline of the school is reported on in very satisfactory terms. I am especially glad to see that domestic economy has not only been successful, but has excited special interest among the girls, and that they have carried their teaching into their home life. Nothing could be better for the girls of the school than the teaching of domestic economy. The school has this year, for the first time, taken up the competitions in the Oxford local, and with considerable success. The record of the school is one of which you should be heartily proud, and I am most heartily pleased to be able to congratulate them upon it. I am specially pleased to say that the managers of the school in her report laid special emphasis on all those points which I have from year to Intimations.

THE ATTACK ON SIN.

It appears that soldiers from the north over the aggressors in the recent fighting in Shensi province. A strong appeal is therefore made to the Powers not to be deceived by the protestations of the Imperial party in regard to their desire for peace. It is pointed out that even whilst the peace negotiations were being carried forward, the northern soldiers attacked the New Army, and beat them because their ammunition gave out. It was impossible to get sufficient arms and ammunition into these inland western provinces, and so collapse followed. Though the revolutionists fought with determination, they were unable to stand up against those who had better and more numerous modern weapons. The report says that Yuan, "even whilst protesting to want peace, and discussing peace with the distant enemies in the south, did not hesitate to send soldiers to attack enemies who were weaker to him in the north." Based on this text there is an appeal not to trust him, or his promises, but to stand firm for the fighting which must come, and the sooner it comes the better. Indeed it is not difficult to see from the general tenor of the native Canton press that there is a growing irritation at the present situation, and an increasing belief in the unreliability of Yuan Shih Kai.

Some of the beverages with which Jaded Members of Parliament are wont to refresh themselves when addressing the House are detailed by Sir A. T. Griffiths-Boscawen, in his "Fourteen Years in Parliament." "Nearly all great Ministers," he writes, "require liquid refreshment in the course of their principal orations. Mr Gladstone was reputed to indulge in a quart of concoction of eggs and sherry; Mr Balfour usually had a whisky and soda; one of the present Cabinet to my certain knowledge used to take a glass of well-unspiced champagne; while in the German Reichstag Prince Bismarck is said to have carried an Army Bill with the aid of eight lump squashes. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach always took port."

"SCRATCHED UNTIL I TORE THE FLESH"

itching, Burning Skin - Eczema.

Body, Legs and Arms One Mass of Sores. Could not Sleep with Constant Itch. Tried Cuticura

Remedies and in Less than One Week Skin was All Right.

"It was in the latter end of the year 1908 that a nasty skin came through my skin, and I scratched it until I tore the flesh. I tried several remedies but to no effect. I went to a skin hospital. They advised me to go to the hospital. I refused. I could not sleep with the constant itch. I was that way until I got about the month of January. One day I chanced to see in the paper a notice about the Cure. At last I had a cure. I will try the Cuticura Remedy. With the first wash and Cuticura ointment I used, I found their effects. I got one box of the Ointment more, and in less than one week the skin was all right, and left no traces after it. I have not had a return of the same since, and I shall always praise the Cuticura Remedy as being the means of my cure." (Signed) John Tyrrell, 64, Seaboard Road, Liverpool, Eng. Apr. 6, 1910.

In later letter Mr. Tyrrell adds: "The first appearance of my skin eczema was a burning itch which I tore and left my body, legs and arms on mass of sores. It came about the night, but now I can sleep as well as ever."

A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient, when all else fails. Sold at Chemists, Grocers, the World-
